

The Pilgrim's Progress

(Part 1)

Abridged & Illustrated

Level 2

One day, I fell asleep. And while I slept,
I dreamed a dream.

In my dream, I saw a man. He was sad.
And he was scared.

He had a book. And he had a burden on his back. His name was Christian.

He talked to his family. He said, "If we stay here, we will die."

But his family did not want to leave.

Christian did not know what to do.
He prayed to God.

One day, Christian met a man named Evangelist. Evangelist told him how to escape death and get to Heaven.

Christian would be safe in Heaven.
Christian wanted to go to Heaven.
Christian ran the way the man said.
Christian left everything behind.

A man named Obstinate tried to stop Christian. Christian wanted him to come too. But Obstinate would not come.

A man named Pliable also tried to stop Christian. Christian told Pliable about Heaven. Pliable wanted to go to Heaven too. Pliable went with Christian.

Greenfield Education

Helping ordinary kids reach their extraordinary potential

We hope you enjoyed this Greenfield Reader. Visit GreenfieldEducation.com for more educational books and software.

Readers that grow with your child.

Greenfield Readers take you child from single words and short phrases all the way up to the full, original text.

The same story is retold with level appropriate vocabulary and grammatical difficulty.

Greenfield Readers are available in multiple formats, including Kindle and PDF.

Different levels for different readers.

Level 1: One word or phrase per page, distilling the essence of the story.

Level 2: Simple sentences, presenting the basic story in an easy to understand and easy to speak manner.

Level 3: Complex sentence structure and increasing vocabulary, challenging the emerging reader.

Level 4: The full, original text still coupled with engaging illustrations.